

ADEP

Another Development Perspective

ADEP is:

a company that works for peace, human rights and sustainable development by supporting initiatives, movements and organizations, founded on alternative development theory, and should be perceived as a part of the global movement that works for a democratic, fair and sustainable world order, works within the following thematic areas: peace and conflict resolution, human rights, climate and sustainable development, community development and communication, contributes to change through ideas, knowledge, training, education, journalism, projects, evaluations, analysis and debate,

ADEP is founded by Ingvar Rönnbäck.

ADEP – Another Development Perspective AB

Ingvar Rönnbäck

Mobile: +46 70 604 72 01

E-mail: adep@ingvarronnback.se

Webb: www.ingvarronnback.se

- Accomplished assignments/activities:
- International conferences, seminars and educations in thematic areas such as climate justice, sustainable development, peacebuilding, humanitarian assistance, religion and development commissioned by Sida, Institute for Sustainable Development and Swedish Ecomunicipalites
- Education at Umeå university, Swedish university for Agriculture Sciences and Malmö University; Peace and Conflict Studies, Humanecology, Development Studies, Dynamics in Tropical Land Use, Peoples of the Baltic, Culture and Identity, Minor Field Studies, International Trends in Formal Education, Global Challenges, Environmental courses, Postcolonialism, Global Health, The Culture of Power and Resistance
- Educational and public work on global development, commissioned by schools, universities, civil society organizations
- Evaluations and inquiries commissioned by the Swedish government, national authorities, public organizations, civil society organizations and municipalities
- Books/articles on global development issues
- Project work and project management commissioned by Sida, municipalites and public organizations
- Journalistic work towards news papers, magazines and organizations in different assignments
- International exchange and co-operation between civil society organizations, universities and municipalites in north, south, east and west